MUR 4940

Oct 26 12 52 PH 199

Dear Mr. Noble:

I submit this complaint to present the Commission with an open-and-shut case of soft money being illegally used for independent expenditures in a federal election, in violation of

- (1) limits on contributions to political committees; and
- (2) important reporting and disclaimer requirements. These violations were committed by Mr. Jerome Kohlberg; Campaign for America; Campaign for America's former president, Mr. Douglas C. Berman; and Campaign for America's treasurer, Ms. Eileen Capone.

Despite their self-styled status as advocates of campaign finance reform, Mr. Kohlberg and his group, Campaign for America, have themselves plainly flouted existing campaign finance laws. These violations are documented by Campaign for America's former president in an affidavit he signed under penalty of perjury and submitted in a court case involving your agency. A copy of that affidavit and the documents Mr. Berman attached to it are submitted as Exhibit 1 to this complaint.

Facts

As Mr. Berman states in his sworn affidavit, during 1998, Campaign for America spent $466,029 on what Campaign for America characterized as "independent expenditures." Campaign for America reported these independent expenditures, and the contribution that financed them, to the Commission on an FEC Form 5 Report filed on October 22, 1998. A copy of this report is attached as Exhibit A to Mr. Berman's affidavit.

According to Campaign for America's Form 5 Report, these expenditures were financed entirely with a soft money donation from a single person -- former Wall Street financier Jerome Kohlberg. Mr. Kohlberg's soft money donation directly financed advertisements, such as the following, that advocated the defeat of Representative Jim Bunning for the office of United States Senator:

"Remember how Jim Bunning took money from HMOs, then opposed a patients protection act?

Well he's at it again. Hunting for campaign money, rolling over for special interests.

Now we learn, Bunning took thousands from health care interests, then voted to slash Medicare. Forcing seniors into expensive private health insurance.

With all this special interest money, no wonder Bunning voted 'no' on campaign finance reform.

On November 3rd, send Jim Bunning and his hungry dogs, back to the pound. Berman Aff., Exhibit K (emphasis added).

By reporting the disbursements that financed such advertisements as "independent expenditures," Campaign for America itself classified the disbursements as "expenditures" within the meaning of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("FECA").

Campaign for America Is a Political Committee

Campaign for America is a "political committee" under FECA because it is a "committee, club, association, or other group of persons which receives contributions aggregating in excess of $1,000 during a calendar year or which makes expenditures aggregating in excess of $1,000 during a calendar year." 2 U.S.C. § 431(4). Over the years, Campaign for America has accepted contributions from more than one individual, rendering it a "group of persons" or an "association." Berman Aff., Ex. D. Also, Campaign for America has conceded that it made well over $1,000 in "expenditures" during 1998. Further, Campaign for America may not claim exemption from FECA's definition of political committee as a "qualifying non-profit corporation" because campaign activity was a major purpose of

Lawrence M. Noble, Ésq. October 26, 1999

Campaign for America in 1998. Specifically, it spent nearly a half million dollars on television advertisements that Campaign for America itself characterized as independent "expenditures" under FECA.

Violations of Contribution Limits

Because Campaign for America is a political committee, it may not accept a $466,029 soft dollar donation from a single person. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(C) prevents persons from making contributions to political committees "in any calendar year which, in the aggregate, exceed $5,000." Further, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3) limits aggregate annual contributions by individuals to $25,000. Mr. Kohlberg's contributions to Campaign for America clearly exceeded these limits. Indeed, Campaign for America's Form 5 Report discloses that Mr. Kohlberg contributed over $466,069 [sic] to Campaign for America's independent expenditure effort in 1998. See Berman Aff., Ex. A. This figure is over 90 times the legal limit. Further, Mr. Kohlberg contributed another $2,425,000 for Campaign for America activities other than independent expenditures. See Berman Aff., Ex. D.

Violations of Reporting Requirements

Campaign for America's sole filing with the Federal Election Commission, together with Mr. Berman's affidavit, indicates that it committed several reporting violations. First, the amount of Mr. Kohlberg's contribution is listed on Campaign for America's FEC Form 5 as $466,069, but Exhibit D to Mr. Berman's affidavit indicates that the contribution was $466,029. Second, the date of Mr. Kohlberg's contribution is listed on Campaign for America's FEC form as October 14, 1998, but Exhibit D to Mr. Berman's affidavit indicates that the contribution was made on October 16, 1998. Third, the FEC form indicates that the expenditure was made on October 14, 1998, but it could not have been if the contribution that made it possible was not made until October 16, 1999, as indicated by Exhibit D to Mr. Berman's affidavit.

These discrepancies raise at least two questions: first, was the form that Campaign for America filed under oath accurate? and second, did Campaign for America misreport the date of the expenditure to avoid a violation of the 24-hour reporting requirement? Under 2 U.S.C. § 437(c)(2), organizations other than political committees that make $1,000 or more in independent expenditures within 20 days of an election must report the expenditures within 24 hours. election of 1998 was on November 3. Had Campaign for America's expenditure been made on the day that Exhibit D shows that Campaign for America actually received the contribution --October 16, 1998 -- Campaign for America should have filed a 24hour report. Even assuming that the expenditure was made on October 14, as reported, Campaign for America's independent expenditures were for media buys to occur from October 16 through November 2, 1998. Berman Aff., Ex. L. Campaign for America appears to have deliberately evaded the 24-hour report requirement by reporting an expenditure of $466,029 as made on October 14 -- one day before the 24-hour obligation began -- to broadcast advertisements during the 20 days before an election.

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq. October 26, 1999

Also, Campaign for America and Jerome Kohlberg appear to have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a)(3). That statute requires even exempt organizations to run disclaimers on their advertisements that "clearly state the name of the person who paid for the communication." Id.; see also 11 C.F.R. § On information and belief, Campaign for America's 110.11(a)(4). disclaimer was "Paid for by Campaign for America." But Jerome Kohlberg, not Campaign for America, paid for 100% of the cost of Campaign for America's advertisements. Indeed, the timing and precise amount of Mr. Kohlberg's contribution indicates that it was made for the sole purpose of paying for the independent expenditures. Simply put, Campaign for America's disclaimer deliberately hid the true identity of who actually paid for this ad.

The Federal Communications Commission has ruled in similar circumstances that a political advertisement by an organization financed by a sole, or virtually sole, donor should include the name of the underlying donor in its mandatory disclaimers. In re Trumper Communications of Portland, Ltd., et al., 11 FCC Record 20415 (Oct. 29, 1996). Disclosure of the underlying donor, the FCC reasoned, was necessary to inform the public of the true source of the money behind the advertisement. Id.

Campaign for America's apparent effort to evade the 24-hour reporting requirement and its evident violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d are related. Had Campaign for America filed a 24 hour report, it would have disclosed that Mr. Kohlberg -- and no one else -- paid for the advertisements. A complaint could then have been filed with the FCC to require television stations running Mr. Kohlberg's advertisements to disclose that the advertisements were in reality paid for by Mr. Kohlberg, not Campaign for America. Unless the FEC enforces its own regulations, individuals like Mr. Kohlberg will continue to funnel large sums of soft money to organizations they control for the purpose of making independent expenditures. organizations, meanwhile, will continue to disburse the money on the 21st day before an election but not run the advertisements until sometime later within the 20-day period. And the public will continue to be deprived of information -- the true identity of the person who paid for the advertisements -- that it needs to file a complaint with the FCC if the organization's disclaimer does not disclose that the advertisement was financed by money from a single individual.

In addition, under 2 U.S.C. § 433, political committees are required to file statements of organization within 10 days of becoming a political committee. As shown above, Campaign for America is a political committee. It has not, however, ever filed a statement of organization. Also, 2 U.S.C. § 434(4) requires periodic reporting. Campaign for America, however, has filed only one report, as Mr. Berman admits in his affidavit.

The numerous reporting failures and other legal violations by Jerome Kohlberg and Campaign for America form a pattern of blatant disregard for important campaign finance controls. Moreover, these violations facilitated an obvious effort to conceal Mr. Kohlberg's massive financial investment in the outcome of a federal election - while simultaneously using soft money to illegally finance independent expenditures. Though Mr. Kohlberg was the largest individual donor toward an effort to elect a U.S. Senator in Kentucky, no one - other than Mr. Kohlberg, Campaign for America, and quite possibly the benefiting candidate - was made aware of that fact until it was too late.

Conclusion

This is a case of clear-cut violations which have been documented by the sworn statement of the former president of Campaign for America. Further, upon information and belief, the violations were intentional -- it defies logic to suppose that one of the leading advocates of campaign finance reform was ignorant of the ways in which the existing laws apply to its own activities. I therefore request that the Commission find that Mr. Kohlberg, Campaign for America, Mr. Berman, and Ms. Capone all violated FECA and its implementing regulations, and require them to pay appropriate civil penalties. Because the total dollar value of the violations could well exceed $466,029, this should be a matter of high priority for the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven J. Law, Executive Director National Republican Senatorial Committee

I, STEVEN J. LAW, hereby certify that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

Civ. No. 98-CV-1207 (WBB)

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION, Defendant.

AFFIDAVIT OF DOUGLAS BERMAN

DOUGLAS BERMAN, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

- 1. My name is Douglas Berman. I was employed as the President of The Campaign for America Project ("Campaign for America") from March 1997 to December 1998. Unless otherwise indicated, this affidavit is based on my personal knowledge.
- 2. Campaign for America is a 501(c)(4) non-profit corporation whose mission is working to pass meaningful campaign finance reform legislation, promoting a nonpartisan dialogue around a set of common-sense principles that the public can understand and embrace, and conducting projects and programs aimed at mobilizing citizen support for campaign finance reform. Campaign for America was founded in April 1995. The late Congressman Mike Synar was Campaign for America's first president. After Congressman Synar's death in January 1996, Campaign for America was inactive until March 1997. At that point, Campaign for America resumed activities to advance its mission.

- 3. On October 22, 1998, Campaign for America filed a report with the Federal Election Commission reporting certain disbursements for independent expenditures, i.e., communications expressly advocating the election of Scotty Baesler and the defeat of Jim Bunning in the 1998 U.S. Senatorial election in Kentucky. A true and correct copy of this report is attached as Exhibit A to this Affidavit. Apart from this report, Campaign for America has not filed any other reports with the Federal Election Commission.
- 4. Pursuant to the Lobbying Disclosure Act of 1995, since March 1997 Campaign for America files lobbying disclosure reports with the United States Congress. True and correct copies of those reports for 1997 and 1998 are attached as Exhibit B to this Affidavit. As disclosed in those reports, Campaign for America has engaged in efforts to lobby Members of Congress on campaign finance reform.
- 5. Pursuant to applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and consistent with Campaign for America's status as a tax-exempt 501(c)(4) corporation, Campaign for America files Form 990 with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS").

Through these forms Campaign for America discloses to the IRS

the identities of contributors whose contributions aggregate more than $5,000 in a calendar year. Although Campaign for America's Forms 990 are generally available for public inspection, my understanding is that the portion of the reports that discloses the identities of contributors whose contributions aggregate more than $5,000 in a calendar year is not required to be made available for public inspection. True and correct copies of Campaign for America's Forms 990 for 1995 through 1997 are attached as Exhibit C to this Affidavit.

- 6. Except as described in paragraphs 3-5 above, Campaign for America does not disclose the amount of its contributions or the amount and purpose of its disbursements to any government entity, but has generally disclosed to the public that its principal source of funding is Mr. Jerome Kohlberg.
- 7. A list of contributions received by Campaign for America from April 10, 1995, through February 10, 1999, is attached as Exhibit D to this Affidavit. This list shows each contribution received, the amount of each contribution, and the source of each contribution. My understanding is that this list was prepared by an employee of Kisco Management Corp., which maintains Campaign for America's financial books and records.

This list was generated from a computerized spreadsheet that, in turn, was derived from a substantially similar spreadsheet that is maintained as a business record for Campaign for America and used by Campaign for America to keep track of contributions.

Consistent with Campaign for America's mission, Campaign for America representatives (including me and a former Campaign for America employee, Amy Kauffman) met with Members of Congress and their staffs. The nature of the meetings varied, but consisted of lobbying activities in which Campaign for America representatives attempted to persuade Members of Congress to adopt positions on campaign finance reform that were supported by Campaign for America, and meetings in which Campaign for America (and sometimes other pro-reform groups) would work with Members of Congress and their staffs to craft campaign finance reform legislation and campaign finance reform legislative strategy. For example, during a meeting on August 14, 1998, Campaign for America discussed a message positioning with Senators Levin (in person) and Feingold (via speakerphone), Congressman Shays (via speakerphone), various Congressional staff, and other pro-reform groups including Common Cause, League of Women Voters, Public Citizen, PIRG, Public Campaign, Consumer Federation of America, and two or three church groups. The message positioning was to be used as a common rhetorical framework for promoting campaign finance reform in the fall of 1998 on Capital Hill, in the press, and with the public generally.

- 9. In my capacity as President of Campaign for America, I occasionally prepared memoranda discussing strategy and summarizing meetings such as those described in paragraph 8 above. I prepared the memoranda for the purpose of keeping Campaign for America's principal donor, Jerome Kohlberg, apprised of Campaign for America's contacts with Members of Congress, and for other purposes. True and correct copies of redacted versions of these memoranda are attached as Exhibit E to this Affidavit.
- Cause conducted a joint issue advertisement campaign. The campaign consisted of 60-second radio advertisements that ran in Colorado, Indiana, Nebraska, and Kansas. Common Cause paid approximately $10,000 of the cost of this advertising campaign. The remainder -- approximately $39,000 -- was paid for by Campaign for America. True and correct copies of the scripts of these radio advertisements are attached as Exhibit F to this Affidavit. Campaign for America, in consultation with Common Cause, chose to run the radio advertisements in these four states because it believed that Senators in these states might be susceptible to public encouragement to support campaign finance reform.

- 11. From January 20, 1998, to September 15, 1998, Campaign for America conducted a series of radio and cable television advertising efforts advocating campaign finance reform. All but one or two of these advertisements identified a federal candidate or officeholder and urged listeners to contact the federal candidate or officeholder and tell him to support a ban on soft money. True and correct copies of the scripts of the television and radio advertisements that were broadcast in Arkansas, Georgia, Michigan, Mississippi, New York are attached as Exhibit G to this Affidavit. Campaign for America spent approximately $1.1 million on the production and broadcast of these advertisements. Of this amount, approximately $149,666.80 was spent to broadcast the one advertisement, entitled "Calculator," that did not identify a federal candidate or officeholder. Campaign for America ran the advertisements in states in which it believed that the Senators or Congressmen might be susceptible to public encouragement to support campaign finance reform
- 12. Between February 25, 1998, and August 3, 1998, Campaign for America placed several newspaper advertisements in The Washington Post, The New York Times, Roll Call, and The

True and correct copies of these advertisements are attached as Exhibit H to this Affidavit. For example, on July 22, 1998, Campaign for America published a full-page advertisement highlighting Speaker Newt Gingrich's refusal to let the House of Representatives consider campaign finance reform legislation. See Exhibit H. The cost to publish this advertisement in the New York Times was $64,581.30, as documented by the invoice dated July 31, 1998, from The New York Times Co., a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit I to this Affidavit. For another example, on February 25, 1998, Campaign for America published a full-page advertisement highlighting Senators McConnell's and Lott's refusal to let the Senate move forward on campaign finance reform. See Exhibit H. The cost to publish this advertisement as a full-page, and then as a quarter-page, in February 1998, was $66,658.02 as documented by the check dated February 20, 1998, from Campaign for America to The Washington Post Co., a true and correct copy of which is attached as Exhibit J to this Affidavit.

13. During October 1998, Campaign for America conducted an independent expenditure campaign urging the election of Scotty Baesler and the defeat of Jim Bunning based on the clear division of their opinions on campaign finance reform. The campaign consisted of two television advertisements titled "Dog" and "Again." True and correct copies of the scripts of those advertisements are attached as Exhibit K to this Affidavit. The gross cost of the media buy for these advertisements was approximately $466,029, as documented by the copy of the invoice dated October 13, 1998, from The Communications Company which is attached as Exhibit L to this Affidavit.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Form 990 is available for public inspection and, for some people, serves as the primary or sole source of information about a particular organization. How the public perceives an organization in such cases may be determined by the information presented on its return. Therefore, please make sure the return is complete and accurate and fully describes, in Part III, the organization's programs and accomplishments.

PART II, LINE 44 COLUMN(C)

THE CAMPAIGN FOR AMERICA PROJECT BEGAN ITS CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM ACTIVITIES UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MIKE SYNAR ON APRIL 6, 1995. OTHER EMPLOYEES WERE HIRED THEREAFTER.

IN JULY 1995, MIKE SYNAR WAS DIAGNOSED WITH BRAIN CANCER. HE WAS IN & OUT OF THE HOSPITAL UNDER TREATMENT FOR A FEW MONTHS AND THEN IN APPROXIMATELY NOVEMBER 1995 HE ENTERED THE HOSPITAL UNTIL HIS DEATH ON JANUARY 6, 1996.

THE OTHER EMPLOYEES TRIED TO CONTINUE THE PROJECTS BUT IT WAS DIFFICULT SINCE THIS WAS A NEW ORGANIZATION AND THEY DID NOT HAVE THE NECESSARY LEADERSHIP. A NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR WAS HIRED ON SEPTEMBER 1 1996.

IN LIGHT OF THE ABOVE, THE EXPENSES INCURRED BY THE ORGANIZATION WERE PRIMARILY GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE IN NATURE.

IN THE FUTURE, THE ORGANIZATION'S PLANS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

- 1) THE CORPORATION INTENDS TO PROMOTE AND HOST EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCES, FOCUS GROUPS AND REGIONAL SEMINARS ACROSS THE UNITED STATES IN AN EFFORT TO FOCUS SUSTAINED NATIONAL ATTENTION ON CURRENT CAMPAIGN FINANCE LAWS AS WELL AS ALTERNATIVE REFORM MEASURES, AND TO PROVIDE A PUBLIC FORUM TO DISCUSS AND DEBATE QUESTIONS OF POLICY RELATING THERETO.
- 2) THE CORPORATION PLANS TO PUBLISH (I) A NEWSLETTER TO ADDRESS MANY OF THE SAME ISSUES ADDRESSED AT THE EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCES, FOCUS GROUPS AND REGIONAL SEMINARS IT HOSTS, AND (II) PUBLIC POLICY ALERTS TO ADVISE THE PUBLIC ABOUT NEW PUBLIC POLICY DEVELOPEMENTS AFFECTING CAMPAIGNING FINANCE REFORM.
- 3) THE CORPORATION INTENDS TO HOST A NUMBER OF DINNER MEETINGS FEATURING GUEST SPEAKERS FROM BOTH THE GOVERNMENT AND THE PRIVATE SECTOR. THE CORPORATION ANTICIPATES THAT THE DINNER MEETINGS WILL ALLOW AN EXCHANGE OF OPINIONS AND IDEAS CONCERNING CURRENT CAMPAIGN FINANCE LAWS AND ALTERNATIVE REFORM MEASURES
- 4) THE CORPORATION ALSO INTENDS TO CONDUCT INFORMAL BRIEFINGS ON KEY ISSUES CONFRONTING CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM IN THE UNITED STATES, AND TO PRODUCE IN-DEPTH ANALYSES OF SUCH ISSUES.

C. More importantly, we should begin working for a legislative package for early 1999. We have built up some goodwill with a variety of Congressional players during the last fifteen months. It seems like the McConnell agenda is to tackle this issue in early '99. There is some sentiment that some changes are needed in the current system. We want to start activity now to try to build

Re: Preliminary Thoughts About Strategy for the Senate

The reform groups met with Senator Levin on Friday to begin to plot strategy. He should certainly be encouraged to take the lead in organizing this effort.

Re: Meetings on Friday August 14th

Meeting in Feingold's Office

The principal meeting was a mass strategy session between key Senators and staffers and the outside coalition groups. The meeting was hosted by Feingold's staff. Senator Levin attended in person and Senator Feingold was on the speaker phone. Congressman Shays also attended by speaker phone. Staff members from Senators Feingold, Levin, Thompson, Collins and Lieberman attended, as well as two staffers from Shays' office. [Interestingly, the Republican staffers had nothing to say.]

The outside groups attending included CFA, Common Cause, League of Women Voters, Public Citizen, PIRG, Public Campaign (Ellen Miller's group), Consumer Federation of America and two/three church groups.

The first part of the meeting was essentially a discussion between Levin and Shays in which they discussed the importance of being "tough" when it came to presenting the issue. Shays emphasized that the message should concentrate on the opportunity to improve the corrupt campaign finance system rather than debate First Amendment technicalities. Levin acknowledged this message advice, reiterated his view that to win the supporters of campaign finance reform had to be prepared to force the opponents into a true filibuster, but cautioned how complicated and difficult that really would be. He emphasized that in such circumstance it would be important to keep pointing out that it would be the filibusterers who would be choosing to tie up the Senate since a majority wants to pass a bill.

The discussion next shifted to a debate about the legislative vehicle to use to bring the issue up in the Senate. Levin made the point to Shays that he did not see a way to bring up Shays-Meehan as a free standing bill since that decision is up to Lott. Shays emphasized, however, that he did not think a free standing McCain-Feingold coming back to the House could be brought up either. At this point I took the opportunity to make clear that without a legislative approach that members from both houses thought could be successful it was hard to recommend a commitment of significant additional resources from any of the outside groups.

In further discussions, it seems that the strategy will be attaching one of the bills (either McCain-Feingold or Shays-Meehan) as an amendment to an appropriations bill that must pass both houses. I believe all the legislators understand the importance of suggesting to us (the groups) a variety of scenarios by which they think a reform bill could pass and be sent to the President, and the staffs have been delegated to continue to work on developing them.

Finally, the participants briefly discussed the message statement, with most parties concurring that it is a good start. You can only imagine what a drafting session with 30 participants is like.

Meeting with Senator Levin

Before the big meeting broke up, I ducked out for a brief discussion with Senator Levin. As I reported, he sent his regards and his appreciation for your efforts on the issue to date. He is clearly very committed to attempting to get this bill passed and is ready to aggressively support the effort. The important point from our discussion is that he strongly believes Senator McCain must lead the effort if it is going to be successful. This is because it requires a Republican to take on the Senate leadership and to hold the Republican members on the effort. He indicated that at this point he does not know where McCain will be when he returns from the recess although he is hopeful, based on the trend in recent press statements.

VO: Soon Congress votes on the McCain Feingold bill which bans soft money from special interests. No more special favors or tax breaks.

CFAR-10-:60 "Decide-Georgia"

In Washington, it seems like one scandal after another.

But now, Congress is ready to take the first step to clean up our political campaigns.

It's called the McCain-Feingold bill. It would begin cleaning up the way politicians raise money from special interests.

Skeptical? You should be. But listen to the facts.

McCain-Feingold will ban unlimited big bucks donations and foreign campaign contributions.

McCain-Feingold will ban fundraising on government property, like the White House or the Capitol.

And McCain-Feingold will ban anonymous attack ads funded by special interests like polluters and tobacco companies.

Only one thing stands between these important reforms and a congressional vote: our member of Congress.

That's because our member of Congress sits on the powerful Rules Committee, which decides the fate of campaign finance reform.

Call Congressman John Linder today. 770/931-9550. Tell him to vote yes on McCain-Feingold.

For months, Congress has investigated campaign finance abuses, but they've been ducking the real issue.

[SFX: quack quack]

Congress has spent millions for hearings and reports on soft money, but they've been ducking a soft money ban.
[SFX: quack quack]

Now Congress finally has a chance to stop the special interest abuses. And our member of Congress can stand up for us. [SFX: quack quack]

The Shays Meehan campaign reform bill will ban unlimited contributions from special interests.

And stop tobacco companies and HMO's from getting special breaks for big campaign bucks.

[SFX: quack quack]

Shays Meehan will ban soft money. After months of ducking, it's finally coming to a vote.

[SFX: quack]

It's up to our member of Congress to help make sure the Shays Meehan reform bill passes.

Call Congressman Asa Hutchinson today. (501) 782-7787. Tell him to vote for the Shays Meehan campaign reform bill, or duck hunting season might come early this year.

W1: Ughh, another scandal in the newspaper. Aren't there more important stories?

W2: Yeah, like the soft money ban.

W1: Soft money?

W2: You know, soft money is the big contributions politicians get from special interests.

W1: Like the tobacco companies?

W2: Yep. They give soft money and get big tax breaks in return. All the special interests do it.

W1: Soft money sounds bad for regular people. Can't somebody do something?

W2: Well, Congress is about to vote on the McCain-Feingold bill to ban soft money. So I'm calling our Senator.

W1: You mean Senator Spencer Abraham? Didn't he say he supports campaign finance reform?

W2: He sure did. But to keep his word, he needs to vote for the McCain-Feingold bill.

W1: Sounds simple to me. Senator Abraham can vote for special interests or he can vote for us.

W2: If he doesn't vote for us, that'll be a real scandal.

VO: Call Senator Abraham at (248) 350-0510. Tell him to ban soft money now and put Michigan families ahead of special interests.

CFAR-80-60 "Letter"

The following is an open letter to Senator Trent Lott and all Mississippians, paid for by Campaign for America, a group dedicated to reforming our political process.

Dear Mississippians,

In 1996, Chinese and other foreign lobbyists spent millions of dollars trying to influence our elections. So did corporate polluters and gambling interests.

They flooded our system with unregulated contributions known as soft money.

Under the leadership of Senator Lott, Congress spent millions of dollars and nearly a year investigating these soft money abuses.

We've had enough investigations. Now it's time for the Senate to say no to the special interests and vote on campaign finance reform.

As the leader of the Senate, Trent Lott has the power to do what's right for Mississippi—and America—by allowing a vote on the soft money ban.

We urge everyone who hears this message to call Senator Lott today. 202 224-3121. Tell him to ban soft money now and stop giving foreign lobbyists and special interests all the breaks.

CFAR-81-60 "Mess-New York".

What a mess in Washington.

The investigations, the sleazy politics.

Corporate polluters, tobacco companies, Chinese and foreign lobbyists.

Flooding our elections with millions of dollars in special interest money, soft money. The big bucks special interests give politicians in exchange for tax breaks and special favors.

Special interests, foreign lobbyists. Influencing our elections and our government.

There is a way to start cleaning things up. Ban soft money.

But our Senator, Al D'Amato, won't let the Senate vote on a soft money ban.

That's right. Senator D'Amato is blocking the Senate from passing a soft money ban.

That means the Chinese, foreign lobbyists, and all the special interest keep playing the Washington game—and America loses.

Call Senator D'Amato today. (202) 224-3121. Tell him to ban soft money now. It's time to take back our government from the foreign lobbyists and special interests.

Can't This Guy Ever Keep His Word?

On June 11, 1995 at a New Hampshire town hall meeting, House Speaker News Gingrich shook President Climon's hand and agreed to create a bipartisan blueribbon commission on campaign reforms.

On November 13, 1997, Speaker Generich sud. "We are committed to having a vote by sometime in March [1998]."

It is now July 1998 and all Speaker Grigorich has done on campaign manage retions a manipulate House rules to obstruct a real vote.

America deserves a clean vote on Shays-Meehan before the August recess.

Speaker Gingrich, stop sweeping campaign finance reform under the rug.

CFA "Dog"

Scotty Baesler was a leader in passing a bill to clean up our campaign finances.

Jim Bunning? On campaign finance reform, he voted no. Why?

Because Bunning has been sniffing out special interest money to feed his campaign.

In fact, HMOs gave Bunning thousands in campaign contributions, then Bunning flip-flopped and opposed real HMO reform.

Now Bunning is hunting for even more special interest money.

Taking special interest money. Flip-flopping on HMO reform.

In Kentucky, that dog just don't hunt.

CFA "Again"

Remember how Jim Bunning took money from HMOs, then opposed a patients protection act?

Well he's at it again. Hunting for campaign money, rolling over for special interests.

Now we learn, Bunning took thousands from health care interests, then voted to slash Medicare. Forcing seniors into expensive private health insurance.

With all this special interest money, no wonder Bunning voted "no" on campaign finance reform.

On November 3rd, send Jim Bunning and his hungry dogs, back to the pound.
